

Del Conca USA Environmental, Health and Safety Intern

Del Conca USA's growing porcelain ceramic manufacturing company is looking for an Environmental, Health and Safety intern for Summer 2024. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for the EHS intern:

- Actively pursuing a bachelor's or master's degree in any environmental science or engineering related field in an accredited program
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Willingness to take responsibility for projects.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Applications (Excel, Word, Power Point, Outlook, etc.)
- Ability to multitask in a collaborative team and manufacturing setting.
- Knowledge of minimal OSHA regulations and EPA regulations
- Meticulous, pro-active with positive attitude and willing to learn
- Ability to work on-site 40 hours per week
- Contribute to a safe and healthy workplace through risk assessments, inspections, and program development
- Develop improvement concepts and present them to the leadership team
- Work "hands-on" and spend time with co-workers to understand HSE processes and challenges
- Complete updated risk assessments and audits for all departments
- Assist with Health, Safety, and Environment (HSE) programs in accordance with OSHA and company regulations
- Assist with Health, Science, and Environment (HSE) training and meetings
- Work with management team on ensuring that reports and inspections are prepared in a timely manner
- Any other duties as assigned.

Qualifications for EHS intern

- Motivated problem solver
- Passionate about the ceramics industry and an interest in a plant manufacturing as a career (Not R&D)
- Currently enrolled in a environmental health and safety themed major with aspirations of working in manufacturing industrial hygiene and safety.
- Currently a Sophomore, Junior, or Senior level status

Contact Monica Sheppard-Viator at m.sheppard-viator@delconcausa.com if interested.