Alberto Gonzales was nominated by President George W. Bush and confirmed by the United States Senate as the 80th Attorney General of the United States. He has served as a justice on the Texas Supreme Court, Texas secretary of state, general counsel to the governor of Texas, and counsel to the president of the United States.

Judge Gonzales is a member of the American Law Institute, the leading independent organization in the United States producing scholarly work to clarify, modernize and otherwise improve the law.

His work in the Hispanic community and his achievements as a role model have also earned him recognition as Hispanic American of the Year by HISPANIC Magazine and one of The 25 Most Influential Hispanics in America by TIME Magazine.

Presently Judge Gonzales serves on the board of directors for the United Way of Metropolitan Nashville and the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee. He is also an appointee of Governor Bill Haslam to the Governor's Commission for Judicial Appointments and the Governor's Management Fellows Executive Committee.
