

DAVID L. HAJDIK

Campus Box 5152
Cookeville, Tennessee 38505
(931)372-6243 (office)
dhajdik@tntech.edu

EDUCATION

PhD Candidate, Doctor of Philosophy, Leadership & Organization Studies, in Progress; Dissertation topic: Place Attachment in Conservation Organizations
Johnson University, Knoxville, TN
33 semester hours completed, proposed completion 2021

Master of Science, Information Science, December 2006
University of Tennessee at Knoxville
(American Library Association Accredited MLS degree)

Master of Science, Natural Resources Management in Recreation Resources,
May 1987
Colorado State University, Fort Collins

Bachelor of Arts, Geography, May 1979
University of Texas at Austin

EXPERIENCE & EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

PROFESSOR (2019-present), SCHOOL OF ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES, COLLEGE OF INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES, TENNESSEE TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY, Cookeville, Tennessee
Tenure and rank transfer from the Volpe Library to the School of Environmental Studies.

PROFESSOR (2018 - 2019). RESEARCH/REFERENCE LIBRARIAN, TENNESSEE
TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY, Angelo & Jennette Volpe Library, Cookeville Tennessee
August 2007 – present
Full-time, tenure track faculty position performing full range of Library & Information Science services and resources to university community. Serve as Engineering and Interdisciplinary Studies Librarian. Instruct library instruction classes for university undergraduate and graduate level courses from all disciplines, faculty and community member groups. Guest lecture in numerous undergraduate and graduate courses. Serve on university faculty committees and library committees.

Developed two new courses in Environmental Studies & Sustainability. ESS4093 National Parks & Protected Public Lands, ESS4093 Human Dimensions of Natural Resource Management, Instruct one course each semester.

FACULTY HEAD, LIVING/LEARNING COMMUNITY at TENNESSEE TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY

August 2013-2020

Half-time release from Library appointment for ten months annually as Faculty Head of the Men's Living/Learning Community or Village at Browning/Evins Residence Halls. Provide oversight to academic programs and community events for 250 residence hall undergraduate students. Prepare and present workshops, events and classes. Promote academic success and retention, oversee tutoring/mentoring program in Village.

USER SERVICES, REFERENCE & INSTRUCTION LIBRARIAN
COLUMBIA STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, FINNEY LIBRARY & BRANCHES

September 2006 – July 2007

Part-time position (15 - 20 hours weekly). Provide full range of services to Columbia State users. Staff service desk including circulation and reference duties. Provide instruction classes to various disciplines and college courses

SUPERVISORY LAW ENFORCEMENT RANGER, NATIONAL PARK SERVICE
(USNPS), U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR (USDO)

June 1984 – July 2007

Full-time, professional, sworn, law enforcement officer/criminal investigator for the National Park Service. Duty stations have included Yellowstone Nation Park, Morristown National Historical Park, Death Valley National Park, Yosemite National Park, and Natchez Trace Parkway in Tennessee. Voluntary retirement in 2007 to pursue academic career.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE) 2014-2020

Association of Christian Librarians (ACL), 2005 - 2020

Association of College Research Libraries (ACRL), 2006- 2009

TENN-SHARE, Board Member, Academic Library Representative, 2008- 2012

Tennessee Library Association (TL), 2005- 2018

PRESENTATIONS & PUBLICATIONS

Present peer-reviewed and non peer-reviewed presentations and Proceedings annually at state, national and international Conferences within disciplines of Information Science, Engineering Education, and Natural Resources Conservation 2007-2019