

Steps for Hiring a Graduate Assistant

When offering an assistantship it is important that the student understands it is only an offer and that an assistantship is not valid until all College of Graduate Studies admissions/ registration and the Human Resources Department requirements have been met.

Before the assistantship can be offered Students must:

- Be admitted with full standing into a Tennessee Tech graduate program
- Student must complete the GA application.
- Fulltime graduate assistants must enroll in at least six (6) graduate credit hours per semester and no more the twelve (12). Halftime graduate assistants must enroll in at least six (6) graduate credit hours per semester and no more than fourteen (14). Summer graduate assistants must be enrolled in at least one (1) graduate credit hours, but not more than twelve (12).

Offer Letter (for admitted TTU students)

- Students should receive the university GA offer letter from the college/department.
- Upon acceptance the student must sign the offer letter and return it to the awarding department by the designated deadline given in the letter.
- All Graduate Assistantship offer letter for international students must be sent to the International Student Affairs office (Andrew Bleignier) upon making the offer and then again upon acceptance, for the completion of the I-20.
- No international GA PAF will be approved by the College of Graduate Studies without prior receipt of the acceptance letter being sent to Andrew Bleignier in International Student Registration.

Department maintains all necessary paperwork for student's assistantship file

These files include:
